Aegean

Inspired by the Greco-Roman treasures of the ancient world and named after the sea between Greece and Turkey, Aegean is derived from the Greek word “aiges,” meaning “waves.” A classic motif, the Aegean sea is strikingly reimagined for contemporary tables and captured in Limoges porcelain.

Alençon

Inspired by the treasured lace-making tradition that originated in Alençon, France, during the 16th century, Alençon evokes the extraordinary craftsmanship of the “Queen of Lace.” Applied by hand to accent the distinct shape of the pieces, the patterns create a dramatic sense of movement.

Bohême

Bohême hand-painted bowls add unique character to table settings, indoor or alfresco. With porcelain as their canvas, artisans utilize a reactive glaze with a layered drip technique to create vibrant, one-of-a-kind pieces. While no two designs are exactly alike, when combined they make for an eclectic and harmonious table setting.

Fortuny

The artisans of Venice inspire us. We love not only their consummate abilities, but also their way of being—a sumptuous tapestry of invention and delight, woven throughout everyday experiences. Their carefully guarded secrets and techniques have been handed down directly from the ancient world, one generation of skilled artisans to the next. The legendary fashion and textile designer Mariano Fortuny—revealing a deep and kindred connection that transcends time—sets the tone of this collaboration. L'Objet pour Fortuny dinnerware, entertaining, and home décor collections are composed of earthenware and metals with hand-gilded 24-karat gold accents.

L'Objet + Lito

A surrealistic “talisman” of good luck and a traditional symbol of protection, the eye serves as a constant reminder to be aware, to dispel negative energy, and to seek beauty in the everyday. The eye is also a point of connection between two souls. L'Objet + Lito is a celebration of that connection, between two creators, inviting you to see design in a whole new light. Whimsical and surreal decorative objects are handcrafted in porcelain with 24-karat gold plating and inlaid with resin details.

Games

Since the Egyptian game of Senet was first played around 3100 BC, we have long been fascinated by the whimsical hand of fate. Will luck be on our side? Will we be seduced by a sleight of hand? Is perception more beautiful than reality?

Inspired by the timeless allure of gaming and magic, these L'Objet creations use luxurious materials to give modern finishes to classic patterns.

BOIS SAUVAGE

Fragrance Notes

Italian bergamot, wild lavender, and cypress forests, infused with heady jasmine absolute and vanilla and grounded in tobacco and spice.

ROSE NOIRE

Fragrance Notes

A velvety mix of exotic roses, delicately contrasted by Ceylon tea. This sumptuous, floral blend is shaded with hints of white pepper, pimento berry, and moss.

CÔTÉ MAQUIS

Fragrance Notes

Salty air, infused with the earthiness of incense, and cashmere wood and lifted by warm, golden labdanum.

Parfums de Voyage

We travel to escape the ordinary. And of the many impressions we take away from our journeys, it is the sense of smell that leaves the greatest impact on our memory. Scents hold the power to transport us immediately to a place in time, to recapture a mood...or even to entice us with sensual hints of adventures yet to come. L'Objet presents a collection of aromatic expressions created from natural oils and essences, blended and poured by hand. Experience Parfums de Voyage—the essence of discovery.
