THE BRAND

Inseparably linked to all the other Armani brands, Armani/Casa provides a platform for Giorgio Armani to set out his vision of the interiors: intimate special places with a mood of emotional pleasure, somewhere to relax and entertain guests surrounded by beauty and elegance. The purpose of the Armani/Casa research is to communicate an atmosphere, to dress everyday living spaces in the same way Armani fashion creations dress people.

The home imagined by Giorgio Armani is a place that provides the pleasure of well-being. Armani/Casa modernizes the way spaces are used by completely removing anything superfluous, redundant and useless. Nothing is left to chance, and every detail is meticulously conceived to express the idea of subtle luxury.

The Armani/Casa aesthetic philosophy focuses on simple lines and perfect proportions, enriched by precious materials, refined finishes, and elegant textiles. The quest for sophisticated comfort turns into the creation of a total home setting, which uses a modern and rational design language. RE-DISCOVERING HOME

The concept behind the Armani/Casa 2021 collection, after a deep reflection on the needs we are experimenting in our home environments at this time, is rationalizing our spaces to better balance the newfound activities of our everyday life at home.

In the furniture design, function and decorative details are the fil rouge defining the visual continuity between different areas of the home. Essential yet precious pieces like the Rousseau desk – whose leather-clad tubular elements were conceived to match ranges from the permanent collection, like the Olimpia bookcase and the Prestige sideboard – enrich the working area and smoothen the transition to the relax ones. In the living room, the same structural details can be found on ottomans (Rodeo) which contour the enveloping sofas (Open, Rembrandt, Renoir, Robinson) and armchairs (Rondò).

The dining area features lighter volumes, where the minimalist design of the Rosemond table and the Roslin chair is enlivened by the use of some of the best-known Armani/Casa finishes, like Canaletto Walnut and Satin Light Brass. The same lightness appears in the bedroom area, with either entirely upholstered proposals (Ryoko) or, in contrast, thin structures in hard materials (Roland). The back-lit screen Ronin completes the setting for a quiet atmosphere with an Oriental touch and serves to divide the space to serve different needs.

New lamps, characterized by clean yet sculptural lines (Rea), interpret geometric shapes (Ronnie, Rubik) or details recalling natural elements (Ramage, Retta) in complementary materials such as Satin Light Brass and rich dark woods.

PASCAL

The Pascal armchair is marked by its curved design, where the armrests are created by the prosecution of the seatback itself. The enveloping shape is not imposing at all, making this armchair ideal for small spaces/corners and for the contract sector as well. Another feature of this piece is the presence of four feet in solid wood. The inner structure of the seat features springs in harmonic steel, while the seatback presents a rubber padding. Due to its curved lines, Pascal can be subject to limitations when choosing the upholstery: the upholstery is hence available in all Armani/Casa fabrics suitable for this kind of shape, plus all Soft Touch Leathers in collection. Inner structure of seat and seatback with springs in harmonic steel; four thin squared feet in solid wood. PAGE

Page is a rectangular dining table, whose look catches the eye thanks to the particular base structure. In fact, legs are made of different wood laths (each with section of 3 x 5 cm) placed with a distance of 3 cm in between them: this feature creates an alternance of full and empty spaces, giving this important structure a lighter appearance. All laths of the same leg are connected at the base by a feet in Lacquer. Another important detail is the horizontal bar that connects the legs and runs below the top. The top has a thickness of 5 cm. Page is available in two versions. The first is in Brushed Honey Ashwood with top in Crisscross Natural Straw, whose striped design recalls the laths of the table; The second is entirely in Brushed Brown Ashwood, featuring a top in solid wood. The material used for this second version is sustainable, since comes from the excess of solid wood not used for other furniture: no additional trees are cut to obtain the raw material. PILLAR

Pillar was born from the idea of combining a sleek design with a strong vintage accent. The inspiration for Pillar came from the so called «fratina» style, the typical dining tables used in monasteries during the Middle Age and conceived to increase conviviality. In our version, the distance from the legs to the edge of the top is 38 cm: in this way, people sitting close to the legs have all the space necessary to feel comfortable. The rigorous look of this classic shape has been modernized by the use of exclusive finishes that perfectly match the other iconic pieces by Armani/Casa. Pillar is presented in two versions, both with contrasting colors for what concerns top and the legs. The first one has a top in Striped Black Lacquer and legs in Shiny Beige Ashwood, while the second features a top in Brushed Black Ashwood and legs always in Shiny Beige Ashwood. MADE IN ITALY.

Two identical elements placed closely create the illusion of two bridge tables crossing each other. Among those, Sky Lacquer is particularly precious since it is entirely hand painted: the inspiration for this material came from the work of the Romantic English painter John Constable (1776 - 1837) and his Cloud Studies. PLAY

Play is a range of versatile coffee/side tables. As their name suggests, they have been conceived to give you the maximum flexibility: in fact, each structure can be placed using the side you want as base, and it can be completed by adding the top. Bases and top are sold separately, in order to leave the maximum freedom of choice. The structures are entirely made with solid Canaletto Walnut, featuring a special technique for the joints that does not require any metal part. The top is in Black Glass, obtained by painting a smoked tempered glass (thickness of less than 2 cm) on the lower side: the final effect gives the illusion of a shiny black lacquer. MADE IN ITALY.

PURO

Puro - "pure" in Italian - is a range that really reflects its name: pure in the shape, pure in the materials, pure in the sustainability. This side table reinterprets the sleek bridge shape typical of Armani/Casa: the timeless design is made precious by the contrast between the dark brown ashwood and the beautiful green quartzite from South America. These two materials are applied by using different and irregular rectangular tiles, which give new life to the remnants of wood/stone panels used for larger furniture: with this choice, Armani/Casa follows the efforts of the Armani Group for a continuous commitment in sustainability. Puro is available in two versions, with stone on the inner or the outer side. All corners feature joints at 45°. MADE IN ITALY.

SLAT STRUCTURES

All Armani/Casa beds include a double bed slat structure* with a wooden or steel frame. The frame can be structural (so the whole slat structure cannot be separated from the bed) or removable (the whole slat structure can be separated from the bed).

All types comprise a system with flexible slats in beech wood. Depending on the range, each bed features a different variant of this system:

- Basic slats: flexible slats with no additional options;
- Shock-absorbing slats: each slat lies on a flexible rubber support, which adapts the slat itself depending on the weight above;
- Adjustable slats: double slats kept together by a couple of adjustable plastic rings. The farther the rings on the same slat are, the more the slat becomes rigid;

* The only exception is Botticelli, which includes two single bed slat structures.

Floor lamp with tripod structure. The legs are conceived to reproduce three bamboo canes in metal, hence making this lamp matchable with the Pamela range. Shade with truncated cone shape, in fabric or in a special micro-perforated elm wood. The intricate design of the latter is inspired by wicker patterns, and creates a special seethrough effect with geometrical reflections of the light. The wood of this shade is coupled with a inner layer of PVC and features decorative metal rings on the borders, as well as two diffuser discs (above and below the light source); the fabric shade, instead, features a upper diffuser disc only. RUGS & MATS

RUGS

All Armani/Casa rugs are entirely hand made by Nepalese artisans who master the traditional technique of hand-knotting. The high density - 100 knots per square inch - together with the use of many different yarns in terms of color and composition permits to obtain exceptional quality and aesthetics. To maintain those high standards, the production process is particularly complex and requires an average time of 21 weeks.

DYEING AND KNOTTING

The dyeing of the yarns is made by hand and with a constant comparison to master samples, in order to reduce the discrepancy that naturally occurs from lot to lot. Once all yarns are ready, artisans begin the knotting: only the most skillful artisans can work on Armani/Casa designs, since their incredibly rich scales of shaded colors need frequent changes of yarn that can be managed only by the best long-experienced knotters.

WASHING AND FINISHING

After the knotting, each rug is washed and dried to revive colors. The drying phase, in particular, is carried out in open-air environments to avoid aggressive treatments that could compromise the quality of the fibers. If the carpet features an accentuated three-dimensionality of the surface, a final scissor-cutting is performed by hand.

CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

As part of the Armani Group, Armani/Casa is particularly sensitive to social aspects. The brand totally fulfills the Nepalese laws which grant the respect of the rights of knotters in terms of working hours per day, Monday-to-Friday shifts, proper wages and age of the employees.

MATS

WEAVING

Mats are thin rugs made by using a pit loom. As the name suggests, this type of loom fits in a pit where artisans weave the rug through the aid of special pedals. In this technique, the mat is weaved parallel to the ground, which helps making those rugs less dense and stiff. While the warp is kept in tension thanks to two rows of pegs, the wefts are inserted by hand to create the design. A high level of craftsmanship is required to obtain those products, marked by the absence of pile and backing.

COLORS

The colors printed in this catalogue give only an idea of the actual hue of the final product. We suggest checking the updated samples available in all our stores. Always keep in mind that slight color variations may occur from dye lot to dye lot.

DESIGN

To determine the direction in which the design will be developed on rectangular carpets, please refer to the related technical sheets or pictures in this catalogue. When ordering a rug, the first size communicated must correspond to the horizontal dimension (as photographed) of the carpet itself.

SIZES

Due to the handmade nature of our products, a size variation of up to 5% in relation to the ordered size may occur. Rugs exceeding a total of 27 square meters have dedicated prices that will be calculated upon request.

SUSTAINABILITY

Armani/Casa mats are made by using yarns colored through a 100% ecological dyeing process with azo-free hues. They do not contain any harmful substance for the environment, pets or human beings: our suppliers operate in compliance to REACH SHVC regulations.

PARADE

Parade is marked by plain horizontal lines. The wool background with silk lines in relief creates a three-dimensional canneté-inspired texture. The vertical lines cross the horizontal ones and create the illusions of irregular canneté tiles: the final design is a sort of irregular checkerboard, which echoes another iconic Armani motif. The entire rug is made with the cut technique; the three-dimensional effect is made more evident by the pile of the canneté lines, which is longer than the others. Density: 100 knots/squared inch. NABUCCO

PRECIOUS FIBERS 1

“Nabucco” is the popular name of Nabucodonosor, one of the greatest operas by the Italian composer Giuseppe Verdi, a milestone of classical music first performed in Milan at La Scala theatre in 1842. To celebrate the deep link of this opera with the history of the city, the wallcovering reproducing Giorgio Armani’s favourite pattern - the streaked texture of onyx slabs - was named after it. Nabucco is also the wallcovering that Mr. Armani chose for the decoration of his boutiques around the world.

The design of this wallcovering, featuring a very realistic trompe-l'oeil effect, is taken from the image of a real velvet drapery located in a prestigious historical palace. The last opera by Giacomo Puccini, Turandot (1926), stands out for the setting at the Chinese imperial court. The texture in relief is obtained thanks an accurate screen printing process directly on silk fibers that uses 3D-expanding inks, an absolute novelty for Armani/Casa. MADE IN ITALY.

PRECIOUS FIBERS 3

The design of this wallcovering shows an inlay motif presented in an unusual way, where the irregular composition of asymmetrical shapes creates a dynamic and unexpected geometry. The background, made of a precious mélange of silk and lurex of exceptional shine, confers more depth. The rich motif takes inspiration by Rigoletto (1851) by Giuseppe Verdi, which takes place within the marvelous Palazzo Ducale in Mantua.

Montmartre is a Parisian neighbourhood defined by two different yet complementary sides: a holy one, represented by the white dome overlooking the city, and a profane one, due to the eccentric artists that lived in the area during the 19th century. This dichotomy echoes in the wallcovering with the same name, where a checkered motif is coupled with a shagreen leather print.

The Opéra Garnier is the most prestigious theatre in Paris: a building that is a triumph of opulence, rich in gold, brocade and luxurious chandeliers. BELGRAVIA

REFINED STRUCTURES 2

The borough of Belgravia, in London, is famous for the white palaces in Neoclassical style that express a mood of rigorous elegance. The seeming simplicity of the architecture, which appears at first glance, is actually a dynamic series of marbles and stuccos, statues and decorative motifs. This new wallcovering follows this concept of "unexpected detail": the background, based on a play of large tiles of streaked marble, is crossed horizontally at the top and at the bottom by a contrasting frame with chevron motif. Once more, the wallcovering becomes the occasion to transform key elements of the Armani style like stones and the textile design. The range is coordinated with a printed version with marble tiles only. MADE IN ITALY.

PALERMO

CAT. C - TC108

The yarns of the warp of Palermo are particularly thick, and are weaved with viscose chenille wefts thanks to a special technique (an exclusive for Armani/Casa): the chenille is "caged" by the other yarns - so that its pile becomes invisible - but gives the fabric a smooth and pleasant hand. The high density of linen results also in a very resistant fabric (80'000 Martindale). The mélange effect of some colors is given by the dying process carried out on the single yarns, which also feature typical "knots" due to their thickness and the mix of fibers they contain.

ROSTOV

CAT. D - TD086

This precious jacquard stands out for its design inspired by agate slabs in macro-scale. The typical geometry of this stone is emphasized by the use of visually strong combinations of colors, ranging from watery tones to earthy hues, from forest green to melon orange. The name recalls antique Russian cities and their imperial palaces, whose rooms often had decorative details - or even entire walls - clad in hardstones. This fabric is an exclusive developed for the Armani/ Casa stores only.

With its name, this fabric echoes the colorful atmospheres of Portugal: the design is inspired by azulejos, the ceramic tiles of the Portuguese tradition, featuring enamel-painted decorative motifs. Armani/Casa reinterprets this concept by adding a rigorous geometry, mixing the shimmering mood of azulejos to a deconstructed chevron. All figures of Porto are embroidered: the final result is a very rich kaleidoscope effect, combining a contemporary inspiration - the enamelled tiles - with a textile icon - the chevron - typical of the Armani DNA.

MAPLE

Our maple features veneer coming from plants belonging to the Acer genus. The typical narrow streaks of this wood are emphasized by the finish: a glossy surface enriches the black option featured in our collection. Area of origin: Europe.

BLACK MAPLE

OAK

Oak (Quercus petraea) is probably the most popular essence for furniture. The Armani/Casa collection features different versions of this wood, from the classic brushed ones to the most particular finishes. Antique Brown Oak - used as solid wood only - has an irregular surface, colored thanks to an advanced high-pressure technique that injects the pigments directly into the wood mass, so that they can permeate all fibers even inside. All oak versions in our collection are matt and covered by a layer of transparent protective paint. Area of origin: Europe.

ASHWOOD

Ashwood (Fraxinus spp.) is marked by clearly visible streaks, which create an exceptional visual impact. Shiny Beige Ashwood is made precious by a layer of glossy lacquer to emphasize the light and shade effect of the neutral hue. The other versions - Brushed Black / Brown / Honey Ashwood - play around strong three-dimensional effects: a heavy brushing phase gives the surface a typical irregular appearance that highlights the natural veins of the material. The wood is finally covered with a protective layer of transparent matt dye. Area of origin: Europe.

WALNUT

Walnut is present within our collection in its American version (Juglans nigra): the name 'canaletto' comes from Italian and it is due to the tiny canals visible into the wooden texture, which transport sap inside the plant. Area of origin: North America.

CLASSIC AND EXOTIC ESSENCES

The Armani/Casa collection is rich in many woods that vary for color, texture and origin. Among the classic ones, Brown Elm features a glossy surface. Black Larch, presents beautiful contrasted veins with a luxurious shiny finishing.

Exotic essences count well-known precious woods like African mahogany (Entandophragma utile), macassar ebony (Diospyros celebica), shiny rosewood from South America (Machaerium scleroxylon), palm (Iriarteia deltoidea). All those essences do not need any CITES documentation, since they do not come from endangered species: this is an ethic choice that Armani/Casa pursues in order to fulfill the Corporate Social Responsibility of the Armani Group.

GREY TAMO

TAMO

Tamo (Fraxinus mandshurica), also known as Japanese ashwood, has become an iconic material for Armani/Casa thanks to its Oriental appeal. Native of Manchuria, it was later transplanted in the mountainous regions of Japan, where the rare «peanut-shell figured» grain variety is now exclusively cultivated. Available in three different colors, the unmistakable texture of this wood perfectly matches with the pure lines of our furniture. Area of origin: Japan.

SPECIAL WOODS

Grey Arboreo suggests a deep link to the world of Nature: the Italian 'arboreo', in fact, indicates something related to trees. Thanks to an advanced high-pressure technique, the color is injected directly into the wood mass, so that it can permeate all fibers even inside. The surface is then covered with a shellac finishing. This environment-friendly material can vary a lot depending on the essence undergoing this special coloring process. Area of origin: Italy.

Paulownia (Paulownia tomentosa) is a particular specimen commonly known as royal paulownia or empress / princess tree, due to its majestic appearance and its flowers that diffuse an incredibly strong and pleasant fragrance. Paulownia wood is particularly appreciated for being flexible and elastic, which - together with an even structure and a high resistance to humidity - makes this lumber extremely suitable for furniture and high-precision works. Thermo-treated Paulownia owes its name to the heating process applied on the raw veneer, which enhances the beautiful contrast of the streaks. Area of origin: Italy.

STONES

Stones are a very important element in the Armani aesthetic philosophy, since they are they are the ultimate expression of Nature's beauty and eternity. Armani/Casa uses the most astonishing stones in the world for its collections, selecting every slab individually to find the best possible hue and design. Examples of this research are Emerald Quartzite from Brazil, Grey Marble from Colombia, Selenite from Morocco and Sodalite from Bolivia.

METALS

Always aiming to create the best chromatic harmony, Armani/Casa offers several colors of metals to perfectly match all other finishes in collection. Golden tones, in particular, are typical within the Armani/Casa palette. Each metal is characterized by a different treatment of the surface (satin or glossy) and shows a modern or a vintage look. Satin Light Brass is entirely hand polished to obtain its typical appearance.

ONYX-TEXTURED METAL

SPECIAL METALS

The use of metal - and other exclusive finishes imitating this material - is a signature element of Armani/Casa. Onyx-Textured Metal combines metal with another element typical of our brand, onyx, Giorgio Armani's favorite stone because of its tone-on-tone striped design. An advanced ink printing technology is used to replicate the onyx pattern: in this way, the design "penetrates" the metallic surface so that it can become more vivid and resistant.

SHELLS

Shells are the perfect example of how Armani/Casa can transform the beauty of Nature into astonishing finishes. Black Opal Shell features a rich texture given by the pearlescent surface of shells, assembled together to create a mosaic playing on a dark shiny base: touches of scarlet red, metallic green and cobalt blue merge in an infinite kaleidoscope, recalling the typical effect of a precious black opal. Green Spotted Shell, on the other hand, plays on a solid turquoise ground with shades of green and ivory, where the small irregular spots recall an animalier texture evoking almost an exotic inspiration. Finally, Marine Pen Shell is made in Indonesia, where skillful artisans treat pen shells to obtain an alternating black/grey striped design.

NATURE-INSPIRED FINISHES

The Armani/Casa collection features several decorative finishes inspired by natural raw materials.

Natural Parchment is made by treating goatskin, in the same way required to create parchment paper: irregularities on the surface - like scars or remarkable variations of color and texture - must be considered a defining feature of this finish, since the raw material does not undergo any chemical colouring process.

Patinated Linen is obtained by glueing natural linen fabric on a wooden support: after that, silver leaf is carefully applied before brushing a the patina. This patina causes silver and linen to blend: the final result is an exclusive finish that acquires a textured golden tone, evoking the worlds of textiles and jewelry at the same time. A final layer or transparent protective resins is sprayed on the surface.

MARQUETRY

STRAW MARQUETRY

This unmistakable finish has become an Armani/ Casa signature through the years. The origins of this technique are very ancient: first traces of straw marquetry can be found in Far East countries and date back to the Middle Age. Only after the late XVII century this decoration motif spread in central Europe, becoming very popular especially in France. During the Art Déco period, it was used for the first time to decorate luxury furniture.

The process to obtain this finish is entirely hand made and requires several steps in which the skill of the artisan is crucial: from the cutting of rye straws to their flattening, from their glueing to the final polishing, everything must be carefully done to obtain the breath-taking look typical of this precious material. Available in different colors and designs, straw marquetry is also proposed in a lacquered version (Shiny Bronze Straw Marquetry) to make it suitable for the top of the Nelson dining table; on this product, the marquetry creates an all-over design.

CRISSCROSS NATURAL
STRAW

INTERTWINED PATTERNS

Crisscross Natural Straw is obtained using a base panel covered by vertical rye straws, contrasting with the horizontal ones glued to leave the background visible. The alternance of vertical and horizontal stripes affects the way light hits the surface, giving back several tones of gold and brown that change depending on the angle of view. The finish is covered by a layer of matt transparent paint to make the surface smooth and more resistant. Like marquetry, this finish requires many hours to be completed: the straws are carefully glued one by one to create the intricate pattern.

Natural-Black Tatami is a textured material obtained by weaving paper yarns around a core of resistant cotton strings. The tatami-inspired surface is marked by a three-dimensional motif, recalling a canneté effect thanks to the two contrasting colors: these features create a strong link to the world of fashion and Japanese culture at the same time.

HAND MADE / HAND PAINTED LACQUERS

These lacquers represent the highest level of artisanship and are deeply linked to art.

Caribbean Lacquer is obtained by applying three layers of different colors on the same surface: the paint is later removed in specific areas in order to show the contrasting hues underneath, creating irregular stripes with blurred borders. The whole process is hand made.

Golden Sea Waves Lacquer, instead, presents golden hand painted streaks on a shellac ground, recreating a play of reflections on water half way between the softness of Impressionism and the luster of Art Déco.

Sky Lacquer is entirely hand painted and reinterprets the hues of the Cloud Studies that the English painter J. Constable (1776-1837) painted as a tribute to his homeland.

DECORATIVE RESINS

Ivory and black, two sides of the same elegance envisaged by Giorgio Armani. The neutral tones of the first blend in the velvety essence of the second, creating a stunning three-dimensional finish for Armani/Casa. Inspired by the delicate brightness of the moon and its reflections on water and clouds, the new Moonlight Decoration enchants with its dégradé effect, as well as with the uneven appearance: circles, carved in the resin to imitate the concentric ripples created by drops, add movement to the surface resembling water mirroring the night sky.

STUCCO

This typical wall decoration technique has been reinterpreted by Armani/Casa with the creation of these precious finishes. The drafted versions, available in four colors, are obtained by creating an irregular grid on wet stucco; once dry, the surface is finished with a protective layer of glossy lacquer.

White Gold Striped Stucco, instead, is the result of the combination of three different elements: a carved wood panel featuring a striped design reminding the canneté texture of fabrics, a layer of natural stucco and a final application of silver leaf.

ANTIQUE GOLD LEAF

WHITE GOLD LEAF

ROSE SILVER LEAF

GOLD AND SILVER LEAF

The art of gilding is very ancient: Egyptians used to gild wood and metals, and also Greeks knew a similar technique. The extensive use of gilding spread especially during the Roman Republic period and continued for all the following centuries, becoming a typical decoration for jewelry, statues, picture frames, paper art, small objects, architectural details and luxury furniture. The gilding of Armani/Casa furniture is a completely hand made process, which is carried out thanks to the skill of artisans applying the thin metal sheets (0,2 micron thickness) on wood with the aid of a brush and a wet sponge only.

Gold leaves are made with real 12-karat gold and are available in two tones, from a very pale and delicate white gold to a more vintage tone; silver leaf, is presented in a romantic rosé version enriched by a touch of copper.

LIQUID METAL

Liquid metals are a new generation of lacquers featuring real metal pigments, which give the finishes a distinctive look: in fact, all these materials present a typical reflectance and a cold touch resembling the one of real metal. Depending on the support – carved, brushed or perfectly even – and the desired hue, it is possible to obtain different effects. On ash, for example, it is possible to appreciate the natural veins of wood below the silver lacquer, while the carved versions create the illusion of vintage metal rods.

TEXTURED AND METALLIC LACQUERS

Many of the lacquers by Armani/Casa show a distinctive look, given by the texture or the metallic shine of the surface. Egypt Lacquer is a perfect example, since it is the result of the combination of three different techniques: after being painted to recreate a laminated look, a technical fabric is crumpled, glued on the supporting panel and lacquered. Among others, we can mention cracked lacquers – reproducing the cracked surface of precious vintage objects – and lacquers inspired by metals.

Black Striped Lacquer adds a carving to the surface of our usual black lacquer to recreate a three-dimensional canneté look. The carved lines do not continue on the whole wideness of the lacquer, hence giving the illusion of a fading design. The width and the length of the lines can vary from piece to piece, since they are obtained thanks to an artisanal production process.

LEATHERS (CUOIO)

'Cuoio' is the thick leather of the Italian tradition, typical of central regions such as Tuscany. Due to its thickness, this cow leather is available only on some products like some chairs and desks. The surface of cuoio is quite smooth and homogeneous.

THIN LEATHERS

Thin Leathers present a reduced thickness compared to Soft Touch Leathers. They are treated cow leathers featuring a smooth surface, where irregular streaks can be visible: this distinctive feature is typical of the natural raw material and highlights its quality. Thin Leathers are available on a selection of products only. Area of origin: Italy.

OTHER LEATHERS

Some leathers within the Armani/Casa collection present a particularly visible texture, which can be added through printing techniques. Among those, we can mention shagreen inspired designs and others simulating lizard skin. Dark Green Interwoven Leather reproduces the chevron, a design immediately recognizable thanks to its geometric pattern. This rigorous yet dynamic design has always been a Giorgio Armani's signature on fabrics since the 70s, and is now reinterpreted by this finish made with dyed calf leather.

On the other hand, some leathers are developed as exclusive materials for specific products. Vintage Beige and Vintage Brown Leather are respectively available on the Paul and Pascal ranges only, and both are marked by irregularities on the surface due to the preciousity of the material. Red Soft Leather is a top quality leather showing a natural grained surface; it is available on the Margot range only.

METHACRYLATE

Methacrylate is a high-performing material with unique characteristics: more transparent than glass and very resistant, it can be used to obtain particular effects. The Armani/Casa collection features different versions of this material coupled with metal mesh, where the final color depends both on the hue of the metal itself and the color of methacrylate layers enclosing the mesh. Bronze Mirror Methacrylate features a reflective panel on the back, creating a dark-textured mirroring surface.

TECHNICAL FABRICS

Technical fabrics by Armani/Casa are developed on microfiber, which makes them soft and pliable. These materials are stronger than leather on a strength-to-weight ratio but, similarly to leather, their surface features invisible micro pores that can dissipate heat and humidity. Differently from usual fabrics of this kind, they do not contain any PVC: for this reason, they do not release any harmful compounds, thus being safe for use in any environment. Those fabrics are also very resistant to abrasion and provide excellent durability; they even passed the flame retardant test (FR) without any additional treatment.

Depending on the desired effect, these fabrics can undergo different processes to obtain a specific look: Technical Shagreen Fabric, for example, has a custom printed multi-colored pattern created by a tri-axial matrix, conceived to remind the appearance of the precious rawhide typical of the Armani taste. The other versions of technical fabric reproduce the typical streaks on the fur of chinchilla (Technical Chinchilla Fabric), a warm-toned leather with pearlescent reflections (Technical Pearl Gold Fabric) or the linen texture in micro-scale (Technical Dark Green Fabric).

MADE TO MEASURE HOME TEXTILES

Armani/Casa textiles have always been able to evoke strong tactile and visual impact, expressing the unique aesthetic codes of Giorgio Armani. The result is a home with living areas and bedrooms enriched by precious items that dress different spaces with glamour and elegance.

DOMIZIA

The range of bed sheets and pillowcases Domizia is available in two different fabrics. Both can be customized by adding embroidered initials.

The percale cotton (500 thread count) is available in 6 colors, as well as satin cotton (600 thread count). The sheets can be customized also by choosing among three different borders, all expressing Giorgio Armani's sensibility for fabrics: plissé, contrasting double band and plain à-jour hems. To attain a harmonious and consistent look, the color palette offers suggestions for the best color combinations.
