Aegean

Inspired by the Greco-Roman treasures of the ancient world and named after the sea between Greece and Turkey, Aegean is derived from the Greek word “aiges,” meaning “waves.” A classic motif, the Aegean Sea is strikingly reimagined for contemporary tables and captured in fine porcelain.

Fortuny

L'OBJET
FORTUNY

The artisans of Venice inspire us. We love not only their consummate abilities, but also their way of being—a sumptuous tapestry of invention and delight, woven throughout everyday experiences. Their carefully guarded secrets and techniques have been handed down directly from the ancient world, one generation of skilled artisans to the next. The legendary fashion and textile designer Mariano Fortuny—who revealed a deep and kindred connection transcending time—inspired the tone for this collaboration. L'Objet pour Fortuny dinnerware, entertaining, and home décor collections are composed of earthenware and metals with hand-gilded 24-karat gold accents.

Games

Since the Egyptian game of Senet was first played around 3100 BC, we have been fascinated by the whimsical hand of fate. Will luck be on our side? Will we be seduced by a sleight of hand? Is perception more beautiful than reality?

Inspired by the timeless allure of gaming and magic, these L'Objet creations use luxurious materials to give modern finishes to classic patterns.

L'Objet
Haas Brothers

The L'Objet Haas Brothers collection is a meeting of imaginative minds and skilled hands. Inspired by the otherworldly landscape of Joshua Tree, the Los Angeles-based artists Simon and Nikolai Haas worked in close collaboration with Elad Yifrach, Founder + Creative Director, and the master craftspeople at L'Objet to create a collection that spans tableware, home décor, textiles, and fragrance.

“We both believe in relationships with objects. People need objects — we develop a relationship with objects we use and it’s a relationship that can be profound,” Simon Haas explains. “If they have a character and they talk back to you in some way, then that relationship becomes stronger and stronger. Our goal with this collaboration was to create a collection that fosters a strong relationship between these objects and the people who use them.”

Yifrach continues: “This collaboration has been a mind-expanding experience for our entire design team. Function is our guiding principle at L'Objet; we make sure our designs are not only beautiful to look at but are beautiful to use. We learned from the brothers to start with the dream and allow the function to emerge. I feel we inspired them in return with our rigor and diligence.”

Together, they have brought to life a family of characterful creatures with the highest quality of finish and function. These are objects to be cherished. In using them, everyday moments become memorable; the ordinary becomes extraordinary.

Lynda is an exquisitely decorated yet secretive creature, who likes to hide treasure in her belly. She rewards anyone brave enough to come close to discover the surprise of what she keeps within.

Second Skin Vessel Series

In order to survive the punishing conditions of the Mojave Desert, the most resilient of creatures from the Haas monster family developed a magical second skin. Forming protection from the harsh sun and bitter nights, they glimmer by day and pulse by night.

L'Objet Lito

L'OBJET LITO

A surrealistic “talismán” of good luck and a traditional symbol of protection, the eye serves as a constant reminder to be aware, to dispel negative energy, and to seek beauty in the everyday. The eye is also a point of connection between two souls. L'Objet + Lito is a celebration of that connection, between two creators, inviting you to see design in a whole new light. Whimsical and surreal decorative objects are hand-crafted in porcelain with 24-karat gold plating and inlaid with resin details.
